Solidarity for All was formed in 2012 as the result of the growing solidarity movement and the decision of Syriza party to create a solidarity fund to support it. Today, Solidarity for All cooperates and supports approximately 150 autonomous and self-organized solidarity structures and initiatives in Greece and aims to:

- Facilitate the development of all solidarity networks and structures,
- Enhance the culture of self-organization in the various fields of social mobilization,
- Create common tools and spaces for coordination of actions as well as the sharing of "know-how" between them,
- Increase the visibility of solidarity movement in order to be accessible to both those who are in need and those who want to get involved,
- Promote international solidarity campaigns with the Greek people, both politically and economically, with mobilization, international day- actions and horizontal interconnection between organizations, institutions or initiatives from abroad and structures and networks of solidarity in Greece.

From time to time, Solidarity for All has co-organized along with the solidarity structures, campaigns of Pan-Hellenic and pan-European magnitude. For example:

- Campaigns to support flood victims in Mandra and fire victims in Mati in Attica.
- Food distributions to support socially and economically vulnerable groups.
- Co-organizing exhibitions with social economy collectives.
- Campaign to collect school material "Education for all".
- Campaign to support the fired cleaning personnel, who were working in the Ministry of Finance.
- Campaign to support the unemployed "A bottle of olive oil for every unemployed".
- Campaign to support the people of Gaza.
- Campaign and visit to Kobane,
- Campaign "Take my hand ", where schoolchildren filled their backpacks with various items as an act of solidarity, to support the difficult journey of thousands of refugee children to the path of escape and survival.

Solidarity for All played a big part within the anti-racist - anti-fascist solidarity movement and since 2015, during the big refugees' "wave", has coordinated campaigns and supported almost every camp in Greece.

Solidarity for All in Lesvos was formed in 2017 in order to help and support the camp of Moria, since the island has the most arrivals than every other point of entry in Greece.

This year Moria Camp, (nicknamed "the jungle") hosts about 19,000 refugees, more than six times its capacity. Therefore, Solidarity for All launched two campaigns to support the camp of Moria. The first one was carried out with the support of solidarity structures in Attica and gathered items of personal hygiene. And the second one, which was launched at the beginning of March and was gathering school material for the two self -organized schools of "the jungle" didn't finish due to the COVID-19 lockdown.

During the COVID-19 lockdown the solidarity movement, supported people who were in need and proved that it still stays strong, by providing food, medicine, masks, gloves and online tutoring lessons.

Since the Greece lockdown was lifted on May 4th, there is uncertainty about what will happen in the future and how it will affect Greece which has been in crisis for so many years.

Solidarity for All feels that right now the need to facilitate and to promote the international solidarity campaign and the self-organized movement is bigger than ever and you could help us by creating campaigns or fundraising events and by making donations to our bank account:
